- 3.30pm – 4.30pm James Evans, OFW
- 4.30pm – 5.00pm Patricia Barry-Relph

Learning Objectives

1. Understand how children are being affected by high conflict co-parents during Covid-19.
2. Understand the emotional and mental health impacts on children of high conflict co-parents in lockdown.
3. Creatively consider what modifications to legal practice are available to co-parents to support them to place the children at the heart of their concerns during Covid-19.
4. Develop ideas and recommendations for collaborative interdisciplinary practice in the best interests of children to deliver more integrated trauma- informed therapeutic jurisprudence services to children and families.
